

Past Conference: Primary Healthcare 2020

Webinar titled “International Conference on Primary Healthcare and Pain Management” is been successfully and efficiency held on June 29-30th 2020 hosted by Allied academies with the theme “Enhancement in Primary Healthcare and its Future Prospects”.

Primary Healthcare 2020 was marked with multiple sessions, keynote presentations and panel discussions. We received active participation and generous response from organizing committee members, scientists, young and brilliant researchers, business delegates and talented communities who made this Conference as one of the most successful and productive events in 2020 from AAC.

The meeting was carried out through various sessions, in which the discussions were held on the following major scientific tracks:

Primary Healthcare and Nutrition

Primary care and Paediatrics

Primary Healthcare

Primary Care Medicine

Primary Homecare

Global Primary Care

Primary Care Epidemiology`

Primary Care and Oncology

Primary care and Nursing

Primary care and Diabetes

The conference was initiated with the Excellences of the keynote forums:

Title: Organ shortage a current critical dilemma for public health.

Félix Cantarovich, Catholic University of Argentine, France.

Title: Autoimmune pain management with nutrition.

Rachna Chhachhi Certified Nutritional Therapist and Cancer Nutrition Coach, India.